Tour Itinerary

Day 1 : Check-in the Cruise & Visit Abu Simbel Temples

After checking in and lunch on board, you visit the Abu Simbel Temple, the living miracle of Ramesses II honoring Amun-Ra, Ra-Horakhty, Ptah, and himself, with a nearby temple for his queen Nefertari. In the evening you have the option to attend the Sound & Light show before dinner and the overnight in Abu Simbel.

Day 2 : Sailing to Kasr Ibrim & Visit Amada

You sail toward Kasr Ibrim with a photo overview from the sundeck, then in the afternoon visit the ancient Amada temple 180 km south of The High Dam, built by Thutmose III to honor Re-Horakhty and Amun. The evening brings a cocktail party and Nubian show before the overnight at Wadi El Seboua.

Day 3 : Visit The Temples of Wadi El Seboua

You visit the Wadi El Seboua temples, known as the Valley of the Kings for the avenue of sphinxes at its front, built by Amenhotep III and enlarged by Ramses II to honor Amun and Ra-Horakhty. The cruise then sails to Aswan for the overnight.

Day 4 : Check out from the Cruise & Visit Kalabsha Temples

After breakfast you check out of the cruise and visit the Kalabsha Temple, a rare Roman-era site 30 miles south of the Aswan High Dam, built under Augustus in 30 BC to honor the Nubian sun god Mandulis. It features some of the finest examples of Egyptian and Roman artwork, closing your Lake Nasser cruise.
