

4 Day Wheelchair Accessible Cairo And Luxor Tour

📍 Cairo, Egypt

Explore Cairo and Luxor on a four-day program arranged with wheelchair travelers in mind. The package includes an adapted private vehicle, sightseeing assistance and portage when needed, alongside guided visits to major archaeological sites. Begin in Cairo with an evening dinner cruise on the Nile. The next day combines the Giza Pyramids Complex, Great Sphinx, Valley Temple, Grand Egyptian Museum and Egyptian Museum before a domestic flight to Luxor. On day three, discover the Valley of the Kings, Hatshepsut Temple, the Colossi of Memnon and Karnak Temple with an Egyptologist guide, then return to Cairo by air. Hotel accommodation, entrance tickets, airport assistance and two lunches are included. Accessibility conditions vary between historic sites, so travelers should share their individual mobility requirements before booking so the available arrangements can be reviewed. The tour ends with breakfast and a departure transfer on day four.

Tour Itinerary

Day 1 : Arrival in Cairo and Nile Dinner Cruise

Receive assistance on arrival at Cairo International Airport and transfer in a private adapted vehicle to your hotel. After check-in and time to settle, enjoy an evening dinner cruise on the Nile. Take in the city lights from the water while dinner is served, then return to the Cairo hotel for the overnight.

Day 2 : Giza and Cairo Museums, then Fly to Luxor

Explore the Giza Plateau with your Egyptologist guide, starting beneath Khufu's Great Pyramid before seeing the Sphinx and the ancient Valley Temple. Continue to the Grand Egyptian Museum and, after lunch, the Egyptian Museum in central Cairo. Transfer to the airport for the included flight to Luxor, where assistance is provided on arrival before hotel check-in.

Day 3 : Luxor West Bank and Karnak Temple

Start on Luxor's western shore among the royal tombs in the Valley of the Kings, then continue to Hatshepsut's terraced memorial temple and the Colossi of Memnon. After lunch, cross to the East Bank and tour Karnak Temple, the extensive sanctuary complex associated with ancient Thebes. Transfer to Luxor Airport for the return flight to Cairo and continue to the hotel for the night.

Day 4 : Departure from Cairo

After breakfast and hotel checkout, transfer to Cairo International Airport with assistance for the departure formalities, bringing the four-day Cairo and Luxor program to a close.
