Tour Itinerary

Day 1 : Welcome onboard/East Bank Nile cruise

Arriving in Luxor and transferred to the MS Farah, guests enjoy lunch as sailing begins. In the afternoon they explore Luxor's East Bank, including the magnificent Karnak Temple Complex with its towering columns and sacred lake, followed by the illuminated Luxor Temple. A gourmet dinner and an overnight in Luxor complete the day.

Day 2 : West Bank Nile Cruise Trip

After breakfast, a private guided tour of Luxor's West Bank visits The Valley of the Kings, the royal burial site of ancient pharaohs, followed by the breathtaking Temple of Queen Hatshepsut carved into limestone cliffs. The route continues to the Colossi of Memnon before returning for lunch and sailing toward Edfu via Esna Lock. Afternoon tea and sunset views round out the day on board.

Day 3 : Edfu & Kom Ombo Nile Cruise Trip

After a relaxed breakfast, guests visit the Edfu temple, one of Egypt's best-preserved temples dedicated to Horus. The cruise then continues to Kom Ombo Temple, uniquely dedicated to two gods, Sobek and Horus. Dinner is served as the boat sails on toward Aswan.

Day 4 : Aswan Nile Cruise Trip

After breakfast, guests explore Aswan's timeless charm with a visit to the Philae Temple on Agilkia Island, dedicated to Isis, followed by The High Dam. A peaceful felucca sail around the Nile islands is one of the journey's most relaxing moments. Dinner and an overnight in Aswan follow on board.

Day 5 : Abu Simbel Day Trip

After breakfast and check-out from the MS Farah, guests drive to Abu Simbel Temple to discover the royal heritage of Ramses the Great, one of Egypt's greatest architectural works. A private transfer to Aswan Airport or the next destination ends the elegant Nile journey.
